↑Call to Worship

Rev. Curtis L. West, Jr.

Leader: We gather for worship today, inspired by the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who dreamed of justice rolling down like waters and righteousness like a mighty stream.

People: Let us remember his unwavering faith in God and his courageous pursuit of freedom, even in the face of adversity.

Leader: Dr. King believed in the power of community, where all are valued and none are forgotten.

People: We are called to walk in his footsteps, to seek peace, and to work for justice in our time. Let us strive to build a beloved community, rooted in hope, compassion, and grace.

Leader: Come, let us worship the God of justice and mercy, the God who calls us to love one another as God has loved us.

All: With open hearts and willing hands, we lift our voices in praise and commit ourselves to the work of God's kingdom on earth. Amen.

Modern Affirmation of Faith

Rev. Curtis L. West, Jr.

Pastor: Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is the one true church, apostolic and universal, whose holy faith let us now declare:

Congregation:

We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, power, and love, whose mercy is over all his works, and whose will is ever directed to his children's good.

We believe in Jesus Christ, Son of God and Son of man, the gift of the Father's unfailing grace, the ground of our hope, and the promise of our deliverance from sin and death.

We believe in the Holy Spirit as the divine presence in our lives, whereby we are kept in perpetual remembrance of the truth of Christ, and find strength and help in time of need.

We believe that this faith should manifest itself in the service of love as set forth in the example of our blessed Lord, to the end that the kingdom of God may come upon the earth. Amen.
