↑Call to Worship

Myles Ward

LEADER: We gather in the spirit of connection and revival, seeking the presence of God together.

PEOPLE: We come with open hearts, ready to be renewed by Your love and grace!

LEADER: O Lord, we have heard of Your greatness; we stand in awe of Your mighty works. Make them known among us today.

PEOPLE: Revive us, O God! Ignite our hopes and dreams as we worship in unity!

LEADER: Though challenges may arise, and the path may seem uncertain, we will rejoice in the Lord, for He is our strength and our song.

PEOPLE: Revive in us, O God! Fill us with courage and joy to face each day with confidence.

LEADER: You give us the ability to rise above our problems, trials, and tribulations, enabling us to reach new heights. In Your presence, we find our refuge and strength.

PEOPLE: Revive us, O God! Empower us to rise above our struggles and embrace the abundant life You offer!

LEADER: As we come together in worship today, let us lift our voices in praise and open our hearts to the renewal that only You can provide.

PEOPLE: We are eager to encounter You, O Lord. Together, let us worship and be revived!

ALL: Let us worship God!

LEADER: Today, we begin the celebration of Youth and Young Adult Week in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. Every year during this time, youth and young adults throughout the Connectional Church are called to engage in a time of reflection and purpose.

CONGREGATION: We pledge to support the youth and young adults in our local churches as they seek to affirm their identity as Disciples of Christ and discover and acknowledge how Jesus calls them to serve.

LEADER: Understanding Jesus' call to follow is not limited to one week in the Christian year. It is a lifelong journey. This week, we will strive with the youth and young adults to strengthen our walk on the path of discipleship with the help of the Holy Spirit.

CONGREGATION: As we grow stronger in our daily discipleship, we pray for the leadership of the church: Lay and Clergy, that God might reveal to them ways in which the CME Church can face the challenges of the present times while remaining faithful to Jesus' commission to "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you."

YOUTH: At the age of twelve, Jesus was found in the temple seated among the teachers listening and asking questions. When Jesus' parents, upset and hurt, found him in the temple sitting among the teachers, listening and asking questions, he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I had to be here, dealing with the things of my Father?"

YOUNG ADULTS: After being tested in the wilderness by the Devil, Jesus returned to Galilee, full of the Spirit. He pronounced his anointing to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.

CONGREGATION: The stories of Jesus' youth and young adult years affirm the value of listening and learning from Scripture. We pray that youth and young adults in the CME Church will be filled with the power of the Holy Spirit as they strive to follow Jesus and transform their lives, the Church, and the world.

ALL: As we seek to envision a way forward in the CME church, O God, fill us with your Spirit that we might grow strong in wisdom. Anoint us for the work you call us to do as children, youth, young adults, and adults. Help us to respond joyfully to Jesus' commission to "make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you." And let us never forget your promise that you will always be with us to the end of the age. AMEN!
